'Horrific' crash kills man, hurts 3

2 vehicles plow into third, scattering wreckage and closing Scottsdale Road for hours • PAGE A4

A high-speed collision Friday afternoon on Scottsdale Road killed a former state legislator who represented Paradise Valley, Calvin Holman, and led to the arrests of two others.

Police said two men, each driving his own car, were speeding at more than 70 mph when they hit Holman.

The two men arrested and a passenger were hurt.

The stretch of Scottsdale Road between McCormick Parkway and Doubletree Ranch Road was closed as police investigated the scene, which they called "horrific."
